

1. Use the map to write a detailed description of the relative location of the island. Include place Names and direction

It is Mykonos town on the Greek island of Mykonos. The picture has boats, water, buildings, grass, pavement, windows,

2. Use the photo to record the following information about this place:

a) Its physical features

Boats are because they are motorized and they can move so they are a physical feature

b) Its human-made features

It's human made feature's are the boats because there either hand made or machines make them. Another human made feature is the buildings because houses, store, exc are made by Human so therefore they are human made.

c) Evidence of geography's movement Theme

4. Construct a Venn diagram to compare this place to your own community.

